DEFENSE OBJECTS TO LETTERS.

Quay's Attorneys Enter an Emphatic Objection to the Introduction of Correspondence Between the Late Cashier of Defunct Bank and Defendants.

Philadelphia, April 11.—The trial of Senator Quay on charges of conspiracy began in earnest when one witness after another was called by the commonwealth to tell what each knew about the case.

Five minutes before the court opened, the ex-senator and his son, Richard, came in. Mr. Quay was smiling, and his features bore a hopeful expression as he responded to the greetings of friends.

Thomas W. Barlow, the receiver of the bank, who identified the books and papers found in the bank upon assuming his duties, was cross-examined by Mr. Shapley of counsel for Mr. Quay.

Mr. Shapley's questions apparently indicated his purpose to prove the whole fabric of the charges against Mr. Quay were the result of a conspiracy.

After bringing out the fact that Mr.
Barlow was assistant to former District Attorney Graham during the time he acted as receiver, and was busy, with other duties, the witness was told to tell all the circumstances of his removal of certain letters, papers and books from the private desk of Cashier Hopkins.

Among these books is the one known as the "red book," which the prosecution alleges shows that Hopkins computed interest on state funds which he deposited to Mr. Quay's credit. The papers also included the Quay letters among them the "plum tree" document.

Mr. Barlow, in reply, said: "On March 29 a person in Harrisburg, whom I did not then and do not now know, spoke to me in this city over the long distance telephone. He said 'I want to say to you an attempt will be made at night to take certain documents out of Hopkins' desk, so they had better be taken by you.' As a result of this I went to the bank accompanied by a policeman, broke open the desk and took them out."

The witness said he notified Judge Gordon, then one of the common pleas judges, of his intention, the latter being private and confidential adviser to James McManes, president of the bank. For about three hours that night he left the documents in the possession of Judge Gordon in a trust company's office. Afterwards these papers were virtually in Judge Gordon's custody until early in September.

Barlow explained that Mr. McManes had agreed to pay the debts of the bank, and as Judge Gordon was his friend, he considered it perfectly proper that the judge should know of the contents of the books and papers.

Knew Nothing of Photos.

Mr. Barlow denied knowledge of the photographing of the Quay letters for the use of his political opponents. He said he did not know they had been taken to a hotel by Judge Gordon and showed to David Martin, or that Judge Gordon and John Wanamaker had taken them to New York, and shown them to Democratic National Committee man James Guffey, in an effort to make Judge Gordon the Democratic candidate for governor of Pennsylvania last year. Mr. Barlow denied knowing that before he received the anonymous telephone message from Harrisburg Judge Gordon had opened the private desk and examined the books and papers. He thought State Banking Commissioner Gilkeson knew of the existence of the documents, and had seen them prior to their coming into his (Barlow's) possession. He stated that early in September last he showed them to Attorney General Mc-Cormick in Harrisburg.

Mr. Shapley asked witness if the attorney general had not told him there was nothing in them on which to base a civil action. The question was objected to by the district attorney, and the objection was sustained.

Witness denied that any money or the security of the bank had been in the possession of Judge Gordon. He also denied positively that Judge Gordon was present when he broke open the cashier's desk.

Mr. Shapley put a long line of questions to the witness, the obvious design being to sustain the contention of the defense that the memorandum books taken from a private desk were not bank property, and therefore not admissible as evidence. This ended the cross-examination.

The "red book" was handed to Mr.
Barlow, and he declared emphatically that it is now in the same condition as when it came into his possession.

Judge Gordon, who next testified, identified the papers and books that had been placed in his possession by the receiver of the bank, and said they were undoubtedly in the same condition now as when he received them.
Cross-examined by Mr. Shields, Judge Gordon said he did not gain his knowledge of the papers in his capacity as counsel for Mr. McManes, but as his intimate personal friend.

"Who was the first person to whom you showed the papers?"

"The man who advised me of their existence, David Martin."

"Who next?"

"John Wanamaker."

Witness said the books were never in Mr. Wanamaker's custody.

Mr. Gordon denied that he had placed the papers in the hands of District Attorney Graham at any time. He denied also that he ever took the letters to New York and exhibited them to National Committeeman Guffey and Mr. Wanamaker there. Mr. Guffey had seen only three of the 36 letters and telegrams of the Quays and Haywood.

At this juncture the district attorney offered the first of the famous letters in evidence.

The defense opposed the admission of the letters, telegrams and books, on the ground that they are not proper testimony.

Mr. Rothermel asserted that he proposed to follow the letters with proof from books of the bank. Part of the new matter was the statement that the bank's books show that from May 1, 1886, to Oct. 21, 1897, M. S. Quay borrowed from the People's bank $1,906, 703, on which he paid $2,418.60 interest.

The books also show that Henry K.
Boyer, while state treasurer, received in interest on state deposits $331, 238.75; Treasurer Morrison got $5,207 interest, and Haywood $1,519.

No Election.

Harrisburg, April 11.—The seventy-second ballot for United States senator resulted: Quay (R.), 95; Jenks (D.), 76; Irvin (R.), 51. Total vote, 226; necessary to a choice, 112; paired or not voting, 31. No election. Anti-Quay Republicans voted for Irvin.

TREATIES EXCHANGED.

Complete Restoration of Peace Between United States and Spain.

Washington, April 11.—The complete restoration of peace between United States and Spain was effected first through the exchange of ratifications of the treaty of peace, to be followed by the issuance of a proclamation by the president announcing to the world that peace is restored. The ceremony of exchanging ratifications occurred at the executive mansion at 3 p. m., when the president handed to M. Cambon, the French ambassador, the American copy of the treaty and the ambassador in turn gave to the president the Spanish copy of the treaty properly attested by the queen regent and premier of Spain.

It is understood that Bellamy Storer of Ohio, now United States minister to Belgium, will be appointed minister to Spain.

Thirteen Lives Lost.

New York, April 11.—Thirteen lives were lost shortly after 3 p. m. by an accident on the bridge across the Harlem river at One Hundred and Thirty-second street, which was in the course of construction. The victims are all said to be workmen. Three were killed outright, 10 were drowned and nine injured.

Fire Chief Killed.

Topeka, April 11.—John E. O'Brien, chief of the Santa Fe, N. M., fire department, was killed here by a train.

THE BRIDE AND GROOM

In the Vanderbilt Family Lose Their Fine Country Home.

IDLE HOUR IS CONSUMED.

The Elegant Residence In Which William K. Vanderbilt and Wife Were Spending Their Honeymoon Is Destroyed by Fire.

New York, April 11.—William K.
Vanderbilt's country house, Idle Hour, at Oakdale, Long Island, was destroyed by fire about 3 a. m. No lives were lost and no one was injured. W. K.
Vanderbilt, Jr., and his bride, formerly Miss Virginia Fair, were occupying the house at the time.

The fire is believed to have originated in the cellar accidentally. It broke out at 3:45 a. m., and in an hour the magnificent structure, with all its valuable fittings, were destroyed.

Besides young Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt, there were 12 or 15 servants in the house. All got safely out. Mr.
Vanderbilt and his bride came to New York on an early train.

The total loss is estimated at from $250,000 to $300,000.

Idle Hour, which was one of the handsomest country houses on the south side of Long Island, was built for William K. Vanderbilt about eight years ago. It was of Queen Ann architecture, two stories high, and was constructed of brick, stone and terra cotta.

CURTAIN DROPS

On the Old Regime of Securing Divorces In North Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., April 11.—The curtain has just been run down on the old regime of North Dakota. Hundreds of divorces are safely behind and scores have been shut out. The closing days of the divorce regime have been characterized by a rush of divorce emigres across the country to be in under the 90 days' provisions of the old law, and the divorce colonies of Fargo, Grand Forks, Mandan, Bismarck and Jamestown have received sudden and hurried additions from east and west, wherever marital bonds have proved galling. Emigres still come, but theirs is a bootless chase. By July 1 the last suits for divorce under the old law will have to be filed.

No Authority For Extradition.

Washington, April 11.—The state department finds itself unable to issue a warrant for the surrender to the Mexican authorities of Santiago Morphy, the embezzling employee of the Mexican National bank, now under arrest at Kansas City. Although the extradition treaty between the United States and Mexico has been ratified by our Senate, the Mexican congress has not yet taken similar action. It is improbable that Morphy can be longer held under arrest by the Kansas City authorities.

Plague at Hongkong.

Washington, April 11.—A cablegram received at the state department from United States Consul Wildman at Hongkong contains a single word, "plague," thereby announcing the annual appearance of the disease on the Chinese coast. It will require the most energetic efforts on the part of our medical officers at Manilla to prevent the plague from being imported from Hongkong.

Police Judge Killed.

Williamsburg, Ky., April 11.—James Shotwell and son were drunk and disorderly at Corbin, this county, when Marshal Bingham undertook their arrest. They resisted, and Police Judge Moffatt was instantly killed in the shooting that followed. William Holland, at whose house the shooting occurred, was mortally wounded. The Shotwells were arrested.

Violation of Labor Law.

Victoria, B. C., April 11.—The Victoria trades and labor council has passed a resolution drawing the attention of minister of the interior to the to the published report of the importation of 20 men from Pittsburg to work on the construction of a steamer at Lake Bennett. This the council holds to be an infringement of the alien labor law.

Kairos Arrives at Halifax.

Halifax, April 11.—The steamer Kairos, which was disabled in mid-ocean nearly a month ago, while bound for Great Britain, arrived at this port without assistance. The Kairos had been in tow of two different steamers, but both were obliged to give up all attempt to get her into port, owing to the boisterous weather that has prevailed.

New Lincoln Monument.

Springfield, Ills., April 11.—The house passed a bill providing for the erection here of a new Lincoln monument at a cost of $1,000,000.

NANCY GUILFORD

in the second degree, and whose trial

SEEK TO RIP UP RAILROAD.

Several American Soldiers Were Killed During the Fight, but the Rebels Were Soon Driven Back to the Foothills.

Manilla, April 11.—At about midnight the rebels cut the telegraph line at several places between here and Malolos, and signal fires were lighted and rockets sent up along the foothills to the right of the railroad.

Later the enemy attacked the outposts of the Minnesota regiment between Bigaa and Bocavic, five miles south of Malolos, killing two men and wounding 14.

Simultaneously the outposts of the Oregon regiment at Marilao, the next station on the way to Manilla, were attacked, with the result that three Americans were killed and two were wounded.

The loss of the enemy was 10 men killed and six wounded. The Americans also captured two prisoners. The troops were concentrated along the railroads as thickly as possible, and the rebels were driven back to the foothills.

The roadbed of the railroad was damaged, but it was repaired almost immediately, and traffic was soon resumed through to Malolos.

More About Lawton's Victory.

Washington, April 11.—The following dispatch from General Otis gives additional information concerning the fight at Santa Cruz: "Lawton's success at Santa Cruz more complete than reported Monday. Enemy left 93 uniformed dead on field and a number of seriously wounded. Lawton captured city without destruction of property.
His loss was 10 wounded; slight, except two; one since died. Lieutenant Elling only officer wounded, slight, in hand. Enemy retired eastward; Lawton in pursuit now."

Going to the Philippines.

New York, April 11.—The Rev. J.
C. Goodrich of Madison, N. J., has been appointed the first agent of the American Bible society for the Philippine islands. He is a graduate of Mount Union college in Ohio.

Left for the Pacific.

New York, April 11.—Battery M, Sixth artillery, left Fort Hancock, Sandy Hook, for San Francisco. There they will be joined by the remaining batteries of the regiment and proceed to Manilla on April 18.

From Manilla.

San Francisco, April 11.—The transport Morgan City arrived from Manilla after a voyage of 28 days. She brought the bodies of Lieutenants Alford, James Mitchell and Edwin A.
Harting.

AMERICAN CABINET

Is Reported to Have Not Considered International Monetary Conference.

Washington, April 11.—So far as the report of the British Indian currency commission tends to show that there has been any serious consideration by the American cabinet of the question of another international monetary conference, or of the ratio of the coinage of gold and silver, it is misleading. There is the highest authority for the statement that there has been no serious consideration of the question by the cabinet since the failure of the last monetary conference.

George E. Roberts, director of the mint, says that he was formerly an advocate of an international agreement, but that in view of the great change in the situation, due to increased gold production, he did not believe that such an agreement was now possible, because there was no longer necessity for it, and it would be impossible to interest people in it.

"The increase in gold production," he said, "is almost inconceivable. I have made a calculation, based on the most reliable data obtainable, which shows that by the year 1900 the annual production of gold alone in the world will equal the production of gold and silver combined in 1896. This means that by the time of the next presidential campaign gold alone will supply the volume of money that Mr. Bryan and his followers in

NOTICE OF DEMOCRATIC MASS CONVENTION.

Pursuant to a resolution of the Third Railroad District Committee adopted at Lexington, Ky., March 8th, 1899, the Democrats of Mason County are requested to meet in mass convention at the court house in the city of Maysville, Ky., on Saturday, April 15th, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend a convention to be held in Winchester, Ky., on April 26th, 1899, for the purpose of nominating candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

T. D. SLATTERY, Chmn. of Dem. Ex. Com. for M. C.
Stanley Watson, Secretary.

If a good, honest Mason County farmer comes to town and buys a nice beefsteak for his neighbor; and if the honest farmer delivers the steak to his neighbor in good condition; and if the neighbor allows it to lie around in the sun two or three days and become unfit to eat;—who is to blame? The man who sold the steak, or the honest farmer who bought it? Or the careless cuss who allowed it to spoil? That's all there is in Miles' hullabaloo and the trumped-up charges against General Eagan about furnishing the soldiers with rotten meat.—Public Ledger.

You evidently haven't been reading the testimony of army officers and others, Br'er Davis. It was not "rotten meat" but "embalmed" beef that General Miles charged had been experimented with as food for the soldiers, and the charge has been substantiated.

ENOUGH OF ALGERISM.

The New York Tribune's Republicanism can not be questioned. It is the leading organ of the Administration in the East. It is not given to sensationalism. What it says, therefore, about the army beef scandal will be taken for the truth. It has evidently had enough of Secretary Alger. In its issue of April 10th, after saying that the beef scandal has been a frightful discredit to the army and an argument against prevailing bureau methods, it winds up with these two paragraphs:

"It is bad business, although Republicans are perfectly confident of the President's rectitude of purpose. But whether justly or unjustly, it is undeniable that many of the most clear-headed Republicans at the Capital feel that Secretary Alger is largely responsible for the situation created by this beef investigation. It is felt by the party men that through Gen. Alger's influence, impelled by those in the department who control him, the President in some way has made himself the champion of Eagan by the ill-considered mitigation of as righteous a sentence as was ever delivered by a court, rendering the whole proceeding little better than a farce."

Many practical Republicans feel and have of late often expressed the conviction that the President should let go of Secretary Alger. Some Republicans no doubt admire the President for his doggedly upholding his Secretary under fire, but they are not numerous. Few prominent Republicans are found who now think that he is acting wisely in doing so. A mere individual is nothing, the party everything, in the estimation of these men. Gen. Alger's protracted retention in office now, of questionable policy in any aspect, and so obviously detrimental to the President's personal interests, is becoming a subject of deep speculative wonder everywhere and to everybody."

Br'er Davis thinks there's nothing in this "rotten meat" business. Whitelaw Reid evidently regards the matter in a different light.

THE HORSE MARKET.

About 10,000 pounds of tobacco raised on the Chas. Ladenburger farm, near Dover, has been sold to J. E. Kirkpatrick, of Ripley, for 7 cents a pound. Fred Buchmann, also of Dover, has sold his crop of 5,000 pounds down on the same farm to F. M. Louderdack at 7 cents.

Falmouth Pendletonian: "N. C. Ridge-way, agent for a Cincinnati firm, purchased about 25,000 pounds of tobacco in the Peach Grove neighborhood, at prices ranging from 5 to 7½ cents. B. S. Morris sold to H. C. Louderdack his crop of about 20,000 pounds at 5½ and 7½ cents, delivered at Boyd. Mr. Louderdack has purchased close to 500,000 pounds of tobacco in Pendleton and Harrison counties this year, and also made large purchases in the same territory last year."

A few days ago a car-load of Iowa-bred coach and road horses sold on the Chicago market at excellent prices. One bay gelding, 16 hands high, 6 years old, was taken at $370 to export to London. A bay gelding, 16 hands high, 5 years old, was sold to export to Ireland for $370. A brown gelding, 15.2 hands, five years old, a typical cob in conformation, brought $295. A gray gelding, 15.3 hands, 5 years old, sold for shipment to London for $185. Other horses in the lot sold at a range of $90 to $155, the best animals being purchased by foreign buyers.

County Gentleman: "The Potts & Partridge sale at Ticonderoga, last week, resulted in disposing of 74 horses at prices ranging all the way from very small sums up to $270, $310 and $350."

About 70,000 sheep have lately been received weekly in the Chicago market, and sold readily, some as high as a year ago. Choice lambs command from $5.40 to $5.90. Choice light yearlings, $4.75 to $4.90. Feeding sheep bring $4 to $4.25.

THE CROP OUTLOOK.

The Season in Kentucky Has Been Unfavorable So Far, But There's Plenty Time Yet.

Mr. H. B. Hersey, Director for the Kentucky Section of the Government's Climate and Crop Service, has resumed the publication of the weekly crop bulletins. In his first, this week, he says:

"The season so far has been very unfavorable for farm work, as well as for the advancement of crops and all vegetation. Frequent rains have retarded all farm work and cold, unseasonable weather has kept back vegetation in general. Farm work is now nearly a month behind and there is scarcely a leaf visible on even the earliest of trees. The early sown winter wheat has advanced slowly, but is in good condition generally; but late sown will be a failure in most localities. The peach crop is probably entirely ruined. Some other varieties of fruit are injured in some localities, but not generally so.

"While the outlook at present is rather discouraging, it must not be inferred that it is even probable that the season will be disappointing as a whole. What is needed now is warm, moderately dry weather, and these conditions may be reasonably expected. With favorable weather from now on, good crops can be raised, as the season in Kentucky is of such length that there is ample time for it yet."

CITY OWNERSHIP.

Manchester, England, Furnishes the Most Advanced Example of Municipal Socialism.

[Lexington Leader.]

The city of Manchester, England, which furnishes the most advanced example of municipal socialism, has made a new departure by adding manufacturers of soap, tallow, oil, glue and fertilizer to its garbage and sewerage department.

The city government now owns street car lines, gas, electric light and water works, ice factories, fifteen markets, baths and public laundries, slaughter houses, cemeteries, cheap lodging houses, technical schools, art galleries and workshops for the manufacture and repair of its vehicles, tools and implements. It has reclaimed a large swamp by depositing its street cleanings and the solid matter found in its sewage, and is now reclaiming another by which it is expected to add several millions of dollars to the wealth of the corporation.

The most novel branch of the city government is a corps of housecleaners who can be employed by the occupants of stores, flats, office rooms and residences to overhaul and clean their establishments as often as desired. A Manchester woman who desires her house cleaned can telephone to police headquarters, and a gang of scrubbers, sweepers and window washers, etc., will be sent at once to take up the carpets and relay them and do her spring house-cleaning in short order and first-class style while she goes to London or visits friends in the country.

JUSTICE E. P. CLAYBROOK, of the Hutchinson precinct of Bourbon County, has resigned as a member of the Bourbon Fiscal Court. The News says "Squire Claybrook has made an excellent official." He formerly resided in Mason County.

COL. W. W. BALDWIN will appear before the State Sinking Fund Commissioners to-morrow in regard to the M. and L. turnpike affairs. It was at his own request that the meeting was arranged, in order that he might present his case to the Board.

THE county levy in Fleming County for this year was fixed at 22½c for general purposes, 5c. for bridges, 25c. for turnpikes. This is 2½ cents higher than last year, and it is expected that in case the bond issue carries it will suffice to pay off one bond of $1,000 each year.

MR. CHARLES MCKIBBEN met with a painful accident early this morning. He is employed at W. B. Mathews & Co.'s lumber mills and was cleaning up about one of the saws when his left hand was caught and badly cut between the little and third fingers. The wound bled profusely until it was dressed. By Dr. Owens.

For the benefit of those from Maysville who wish to attend the commencement exercises of the Aberdeen High School Thursday evening, April 13th, the ferryboat will make one trip, leaving Maysville promptly at 7:10 p. m., and returning immediately after the close of the exercises. The Maysville Orchestra will furnish the music.

In its account of the meeting of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association of Cincinnati Monday evening, the Commercial-Tribune says: "Major Morris C. Hutchins, in charge of the Quartermaster's Department at Cincinnati, spoke of the pleasure it gave him to be present among business men of whom he had heard all his life. He complimented the push and energy of Cincinnati business men, and said that with the right kind of an effort Cincinnati ought to get a great many big Government contracts. He thought that with fifty such Generals as he saw before him he could lead the army of 3,000,000 people in Ohio to adopt the single liability law or any other measure they might deem beneficial to the interests of the State. A toast of Major Hutchins was proposed and drunk standing, and, after a vote of thanks to the retiring officers, the meeting adjourned."

He Fooled the Surgeons.

800,000 DOZEN.

That Number of Eggs Maysville Produce Company Will Handle This Year.

A Flourishing Business That is Attracting Lots of Trade to This City.

Few people realize the extent of the egg and poultry business now being done by the Maysville Produce Company, nor have they any idea of the amount of trade this establishment is instrumental in bringing to the city.

Mention was made some days ago by the BULLETIN of the shipment of 50,000 dozen eggs by the company in one week, and fully as many more were shipped the following week.

In a talk with Mr. J. Y. Dean, who has had charge of the establishment since it was started here a few years ago, he stated that at a low estimate his company would handle 800,000 dozen eggs this year, which at 10 cents a dozen means a business of $80,000, distributed among the people of the country back of Maysville.

The company will also handle fully $20,000 worth of poultry this year.

The company now handles practically all the eggs in the territory south of the river within a radius of thirty miles of Maysville. Country people, since they have found a ready market, are giving more attention to the egg and poultry business, and it is developing wonderfully. Statistics show that it is a very profitable business for the farmer. Within a few years Mr. Dean confidently expects his company to be handling a quarter of a million dollars worth of eggs and poultry annually.

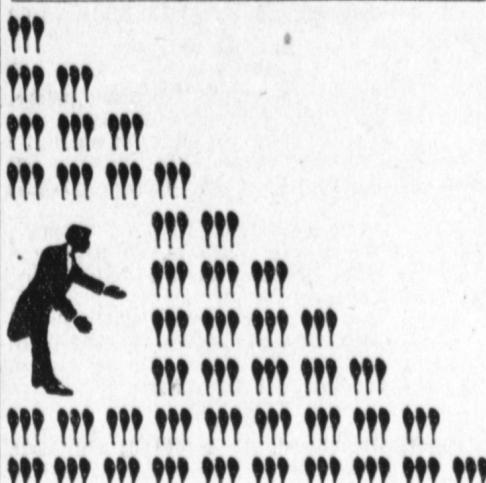

And the company's business is attracting a great deal of trade to Maysville that would likely go to other points. An instance illustrating this: Monday afternoon the BULLETIN scribe was standing at the company's place of business, on Sutton street, opposite Parker's stable, when two spring wagons drove up. They were from Ringo's Mills, Fleming County, thirty-one miles south of Maysville. The two wagons brought 2,500 dozen eggs, $250 worth. Later in the afternoon, the gentlemen in charge of the wagons were seen at M. C. Russell & Son's wholesale grocery, where they left orders for a shipment of goods to be taken back to Ringo's Mills.

This is only one instance. Wagons are constantly coming loaded with eggs and poultry and the money paid out for these articles is largely spent here for other goods to be taken back to the country. It's a trade that the merchants should cultivate.

The boys will have to begin saving up their nickels. Word was received here Tuesday that Wallace's show will exhibit in Maysville on Friday, May 5th.

National Banks May Ask Cities and Counties to Refund Them Their Taxes.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 9.—The decision of the Supreme Court, holding that national bank franchises are nonassessable for municipal taxes, but that stockholders may be assessed on their stock, has opened an avenue for further complications.

In July last David L. Hardesty, Back Tax Assessor for the City of Lexington, acting on a doubtful construction of the law, assessed the franchises of the banks of Lexington at $89,700. In August the banks, under a compromise of 66½ per cent, paid over to the City of Lexington $59,800. Of this amount Hardesty, as Assessor, claimed one-third, but the City Council finally forced him to a settlement of his claim for $2,000.

Other cities of the first, second and third classes followed Hardesty's lead, and the result was that throughout the State banks paid over $1,000,000 as tax on their franchises.

Now the banks of Lexington are contemplating suit for the recovery of the $59,800 paid to the city, and it is not impossible that the banks in Louisville, Covington, Newport and other cities will take similar action.

Assessor Hardesty, under the holding of the Supreme Court, will begin an assessment of the stock in the hands of the stockholders, and it is likely that Assessors in other cities will follow his lead, as they did on the franchise assessment.

Grand Carnival.

We have tried to tell the people in the past issues that the grand carnival Friday evening, at opera house, will not be a home talent entertainment, but some still seem to feel that they are to be entertained by the talent of Maysville entirely.

The carnival will cost the Y. M. C. A. between $75 and $100, and we surely do not have to pay that amount of money for the services of our own people. The people who come here from a distance are men and women of established reputations and to secure them we have to pay them.

There will be just enough work by the home people to carry out the design of the program—introducing every phase of physical culture.

It will prove an enjoyable entertainment and you can assist the Y. M. C. A. by attending.

Attention, Knights Templar.

A special conclave of Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., will be held Wednesday evening, April 12th, at 7 o'clock. Business of importance will be presented. A full attendance is desired.

GREETED by Students.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 11.—When Governor Roosevelt of New York lighted from the Chicago train he was greeted with a rousing University of Michigan yell. The governor and Colonel Treadwell were met at the station by Professors Trueblood and Dammon and were driven to President Angell's residence.

Chattanooga, April 11.—The Uritis

Manufacturing company of Philadelphia has brought suit in the federal court in this city against the Chat-anooga Steel company, charging the latter with an infringement of their patent method of steel making.

Cleveland, April 11.—The carpenters' strike started here a week ago, has been settled by a compromise and the men resumed work. The original demand was for an 8-hour day and 30 cents an hour. By the terms of settlement the men receive 27½ cents an hour, with an 8-hour day.

Heretofore the carpenters have worked nine hours a day. It is estimated that over 3,000 men are benefited by the adoption of the new scale.

A grain of sand in the eye can cause excruciating agony. A grain of pepper in place of the grain of sand intensifies the torment. The pain is not confined to the organs affected. The whole body feels the shock of that little irritating particle. It is so when there is any derangement or disorder of the delicate womanly organs.

The disorder may seem trivial but the whole body feels it. The nervous system is disordered.

There are fretfulness, irritability, sullenness and depression of spirits. The general health of women depends on the local health of the organs peculiarly feminine. Remove the drains, ulcerations, bearing down pains, and other afflictions of women, and the whole body feels the benefit.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for the diseases that undermine the strength of women. It is free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics, poisons which enter into many other preparations for woman's use. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.
